

Brief Bio

Born and educated in India. Graduated from Kakatiya Medical College and went to England to pursue training there. In my 4 years of stay there, trained in Internal Medicine and became a member of the Royal College of Physicians (MRCP). Then moved to the US to pursue Cardiology. Did Internal Medicine residency at the Medical College of Wisconsin, Milwaukee and went to do fellowship at Michigan State University/Sparrow in Cardiology. Joined Thoracic Cardiovascular Institute (TCI) after fellowship and has been there since. Currently I am the director of noninvasive cardiology at Sparrow hospital. My special interest is echocardiography including TEE.