

Dr. Graham is a Board-Certified Orthopedic Specialist Physical Therapist. Following his Doctorate he attended residency at Columbia University –Vagelos College of Physicians and Surgeons for Residency in Orthopedic Physical Therapy. Following residency, he worked in professional sports underneath the Red Wings organization as the Lead Physical Therapist for the Grand Rapids Griffins. After his time with the Griffins, he returned to outpatient orthopedics to serve the community in which he grew up.