

Aaron Kemp is a Senior Attorney and Chair of the Professional Licensing & Regulatory Affairs Practice Group with Chapman Law Group, a national health care law firm, with offices in Troy, Michigan, Los Angeles, California, Miami and Sarasota, Florida, exclusively dedicated to defending the interests of physicians, nurses and other licensed health professionals. Aaron joined Chapman Law Group in 2015 bringing over a decade of experience in the defense of medical malpractice litigation along with representing physicians in credentialing and licensing matters and counseling physician practice groups. He focuses his practice on the defense of healthcare professionals in professional licensing, credentialing, peer review and NPDB dispute resolution matters.