

J. Joshua Wilda, MPA, CHCIO, CDH-E

Regional Chief Digital and Information Officer, University of Michigan Health – Regional Network

Joshua Wilda serves as the Chief Digital and Information Officer for the University of Michigan Health Regional Network, overseeing Health Information and Technology Services for UM Health-West and UM Health-Sparrow. With more than 18 years of healthcare IT leadership, Joshua has earned a reputation for driving strategic innovation, operational excellence, and transformative digital solutions that enhance patient care and provider engagement.

Joshua's leadership has resulted in nationally recognized achievements, including HIMSS Analytics Stage 7 EMRAM and O-EMRAM certifications and consistent CHIME Healthcare Most Wired honors for over a decade. His groundbreaking initiatives in virtual care, conversational AI, ambient voice technology, and population health management have reshaped how care is delivered, enabling underserved communities to access healthcare more effectively.

As a servant leader, Joshua is deeply committed to fostering cohesive, high-performing teams grounded in trust, accountability, and adaptability. He is a recipient of the 2023 Michigan Orbie CIO of the Year Award in the large corporation category and a 2024 National Orbie Finalist for healthcare IT leadership. His personal passion lies in influencing and multiplying personal growth, guiding others to become the best versions of themselves.

Joshua holds a Bachelor of Science in Biomedical Sciences from Marquette University and a Master's in Public Administration with a Healthcare Emphasis from Grand Valley State University, where he graduated Summa Cum Laude and was inducted into the Pi Alpha Alpha Honors Society.

In his personal life, Joshua enjoys spending time outdoors with his wife, an Advanced Practice Provider, and their two children. His hobbies include sports, fitness, music, gaming and leadership coaching. Joshua's dedication to lifelong learning and intentional leadership continues to drive his impact in both professional and personal spheres.