

Michael Danic, DO FASA FASAM is the Chief of Staff and Department Chairman of anesthesiology at Henry Ford Genesys and began his training at MSUCOM and Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, MI. He is actively engaged in patient safety initiatives that include, multiple ERAS programs, optimizing patients for surgery and multimodal pain control. Dr. Danic is actively involved in several community projects that are expanding care for Opioid Use Disorder and has organized several Opioid Takeback Projects. He is the founder of the Genesys Buprenorphine team and sits on the Genesys Health Foundation, Genesee Health System Board, Genesys PHO, United Community Addiction Network and previously served on the National Council of Foreign Medical Education. He is a member of the ASA, MSA, SCA, ASAM, MSAM and AOAAM. He is also a significant contributor to research at Henry Ford Hospital Genesys and is a clinical professor at MSUCOM, CMU Human Medicine, and Kirksville COM.