

Dear Colleague,

The Michigan Osteopathic Association (MOA) is proud to nominate Bruce A. Wolf, DO, FAOCR, for the position of President-Elect of the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) for the 2026-27 term. Dr. Wolf's exceptional leadership and commitment to the osteopathic profession make him an outstanding candidate for this esteemed position.

With 30 years of experience in radiology, Dr. Wolf has consistently demonstrated dedication to advancing the osteopathic profession through various leadership roles. Dr. Wolf began his journey at the Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine of Midwestern University, where he graduated in 1994, and continued with postgraduate training at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. In 2013, he further enhanced his expertise by achieving the status of Fellow of the American Osteopathic College of Radiology.

Currently, Dr. Wolf serves as an Associate Dean at Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine and is a member of the AOA Board of Trustees. Additionally, he is on the Board of Directors for Blue Care Network and the BCBSM Foundation. Previously, he held the position of president of the American Osteopathic College of Radiology. His active involvement underscores his commitment to shaping the future of osteopathic medicine.

Dr. Wolf has been recognized with many awards and honors, including the Walter F. Patenge Medal of Public Service and the Physician of the Year at Huron Valley-Sinai Hospital. He has also made significant contributions to his field through presentations, research, and publications.

In conclusion, Dr. Bruce Wolf exemplifies the qualities of service, leadership, and dedication that define AOA Presidents. Along with the MOA Board of Trustees, I wholeheartedly endorse his nomination for the President-Elect of the American Osteopathic Association for the 2026-27 term.

Sincerely,
