Compared to 2023, Out-of-State and Life Professional members have increased. The remaining member types have decreased slightly.

Educational members are in a transitional period-meaning if they don't join at the end of their residency, they may be changed to prospects.

MOA staff is currently in the process of emailing prospects with the hopes to gain new members by highlighting the following benefits for becoming a member of the MOA:

- New members will receive- 50% off registration for Spring in-person or On-Demand CME (available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week).
- MOA BUSINESS PARTNERS provide products and services at discounted rates.
- The MOA has an active PAC, lobbying for issues that matter to physicians.
