

Presenter's Name: Megan Bayrd, DO, MA, HEC-C

Educational Background: B.A. Biology – Gustavus Adolphus College; Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine – Kansas City University of Medicine and Biosciences; FM Residency – Kalamazoo Center for Medical Studies; Healthcare Ethics Consultant Certification – American Society for Bioethics and Humanities; M.A. Bioethics – Loyola University Chicago

How long have you have been working in your field: 16 years

What do you do/your expertise as it pertains to the topic you are speaking about? I am a Family Physician who currently serves as the Ethics Chair for Mayo Clinic Health System, the physician chair for the Northwest Wisconsin Ethics Service in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and am a member of the Midwest Ethics Committee based in Mayo Rochester. I also participate in the call rotation for Ethics Consultations both in the Health System and Rochester for Mayo Clinic. In addition, I have a Masters in Bioethics through Loyola University Chicago.

Department: Family Medicine, Mayo Clinic Health System—Red Cedar; Family Medicine Residency Program, Mayo Clinic Health System—Eau Claire

